Topic: APPOINTMENT OF STAFF IN CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

Policy No: 2-C6

Policy Area: Stewardship

Updated: 2017

Date of Review: 2019

Rationale

Sound recruitment and selection methods are vital to furthering the objectives and ethos of Catholic education and to meeting the needs of the school and its community through the appointment of staff committed to Catholic values and the furtherance of the educational mission of the Church. Appropriate recruitment strategies provide the employer with the ability to acquire the number and type of employees essential for the present and future needs of the school (Mandate, para 38 and 90).

In the employment of all staff, recruitment and selection are key processes leading up to the entering into of a contract of employment. Sound principles and procedures need to be established, as each stage may contribute to the eventual contract of employment and retention of staff.

Definitions

The Bishop of the Diocese is the employer in diocesan accountable schools and the Congregational Leader is the employer in order accountable schools (unless the Congregational Leader has handed this role over to another body).

With respect to diocesan accountable schools, each Diocesan Bishop has delegated his responsibility for the employment of staff through the Director of Catholic Education in Western Australia, who, in turn, has delegated the employing authority to the Principal.

In order accountable schools, the employing authority is the Congregational Leader who may delegate that authority to either the Principal or the School Board/Council.

Principles

- 4.1 An understanding of the Catholic faith, traditions and practices shall be provided for all staff in Catholic schools through their completion of the mandatory Accreditation program.
- 4.2 Child protection is a fundamental responsibility of all adults in Catholic schools.
- 4.3 Recruitment and selection procedures shall reflect equal opportunity and gender equity principles. Only teachers who are Catholic, however, are permitted to teach Religious Education.
- 4.4 Advertising vacancies helps ensure equality of opportunity.
- 4.5 Assessment processes for job applicants demonstrate commitment to equal opportunity.
- 4.6 A well structured interview affords applicants a fair chance to show how they consider themselves suited to the requirements of the position.

- 4.7 Reference checking is an integral part of the recruitment and appointment process. A reference, given in confidence, shall not be disclosed by the receiver to the person to whom it refers. The Principal has the right to check non-nominated referees.
- 4.8 Confidentiality on the part of all the panel members and any other person involved in the process of appointment is paramount.
- 4.9 The written offer of a position by the principal is, in effect, a proposal to enter into a contract of employment. Therefore, the terms of the offer and the conditions of employment shall be explicitly stated.
- 4.10 An employee's contract of employment is formed by the written offer and written acceptance of the position.
- 4.11 Induction of new employees promotes engagement and successful participation in the workplace.
- 4.12 Costs associated with recruitment, selection and appointment shall be met by the school.

Procedures

Procedures that are Applicable to all Appointments

The Principal shall:

- 5.1.1 Develop a position description and selection criteria for all positions.
- 5.1.2 Specify that only written applications, including a Curriculum Vitae or Resume, the names of three Referees, and a statement addressing the selection criteria, will be considered.
- 5.1.3 Advertise all on-going vacant positions in the media or, at a minimum, in the Catholic Education Office publication, Employment on the CEOWA website.
- 5.1.4 Convene a panel to undertake the selection process. Shortlisting and interviewing shall be undertaken by a number of people acting as a panel. The panel shall demonstrate due regard for a balanced gender representation and include community members where appropriate.
- 5.1.5 Ensure all referees of shortlisted applicants are contacted prior to interview.
- 5.1.6 Interview shortlisted applicants using consistent, well structured interviewing and questioning techniques to determine the preferred applicant.
- 5.1.7 Prior to an offer of employment being made to the preferred applicant, confirm the references of the preferred applicant with the referees which shall include the current employer. For prospective employees from within the education sector, the current educational employer, or where there is no current employer, the immediate past educational employer, shall be contacted for a referee check. For prospective employees from outside the education section, the current employer, or where there is no current employer, the immediate past employer shall be contacted for a referee check. Where there is no previous employer, a relevant character referee for the position shall be contacted prior to an offer of employment being made, eg principal of final practice school.
- 5.1.8 Reserve the right to contact non nominated referees prior to an offer of employment being made.

- 5.1.9 Undertake the CEOWA Check of Employment Status screening of the preferred applicant and retain the completed check.
- 5.1.10 Establish a confidential appointment file for each appointment process which shall contain the position description, selection criteria, a summary of applications received for the position, short listed applicants, interview questions and detailed referee checks for the preferred/appointed applicant.
- 5.1.11 Sign the Letter of Offer detailing the conditions of the appointment, specifying the requirement for a successful CEOWA Check of Employment Status, TRBWA current registration, CrimTrac 100 point Check Police Clearance and Working with Children Check.
- 5.1.12 Establish the employee's personnel file, with details of the position, advertisement, application, evidence of reference checks, interview questions, subsequent CEOWA Check of Employment Status screening results, current police check, Working with Children Check, letter of acceptance and relevant correspondence.
- 5.1.13 Provide the appointee with copies of documents pertaining to their conditions of appointment.
- 5.1.14 Ensure police checks and Working with Children Checks are provided.
- 5.1.15 Inform unsuccessful applicants of the outcome as soon as possible, in writing.
- 5.1.16 Permanently destroy all records pertaining to the unsuccessful applicants following the completion of the appointment process for that position.

Screening of Employees

5.2.1 CEOWA Check of Employment Status

(All new employees irrespective of any service in the Western Australian Catholic education sector)

The Principal/employer will complete a CEOWA Check of Employment Status Form and have it validated by the CEOWA Employment and Community Relations Team by fax and will retain the checked copy on the staff member's file.

5.2.2 Compulsory Police Clearance

All new employees to the school
Teaching Staff

Prior to being employed all teachers, including employees moving within the Western Australian Catholic education system are required to provide a current 'CrimTrac' 100 point Check Police Clearance. A current Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia (TRBWA) registration number shall be provided in lieu of the 'CrimTrac' 100 point Check Police Clearance, as ongoing registration requires a current Police Clearance. Prospective teachers who have arrived in Australia within the last 12 months, shall comply with the additional police clearance requirements set out in 5.2.2 (c) below.

Non Teaching Staff

Prior to being employed all new employees, aged 18 years and above, including employees moving within the Western Australian Catholic education system, shall provide a current 'CrimTrac' 100 point Check Police Clearance. For employees new to the Catholic Education system in WA this is a 'CrimTrac' issued within the last 3 months. For employees changing from one WA Catholic school to another, where there is no gap of more than 6 months in their employment, this is a 'CrimTrac' not more than 36 months old. The cost of the clearance will be borne by the employee.

New Employees under 18 years of age

New employees under 18 years of age are required to provide a Confidential Declaration confirming that they do not have any convictions, circumstances or reasons that might preclude them working with or near children. The Confidential Declaration is provided in lieu of the 'CrimTrac' 100 point Check Police Clearance. However, once the employee turns 18 years of age, a 'CrimTrac' 100 point Check Police Clearance shall be required to be provided to the employer. The cost of the clearance will be borne by the employee.

New employees who have arrived in Australia within the last 12 months

New employees who have arrived in Australia within the last 12 months are required to provide to their employer a Police Clearance issued by their country of origin within the last 12 months prior to appointment preceding the employee's appointment to the school. Documents are to be translated by a certified agency if necessary. The cost of this clearance is to be borne by the employee.

Working with Children Check

All new employees to the school prior to commencing employment all new employees, including employees moving within the Western Australian Catholic education system, shall either undergo a Working with Children Check pursuant to the Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Act 2004 (WA) and Working with Children Criminal Record Checking Regulations 2005 (WA) or provide a valid Working with Children Card. The new employee must provide a valid Working with Children Card to the employer. The cost of the Working with Children Check will be borne by the employee.

Employees under 18 years of age do not require a Working with Children Check.

Exemption

Principals of diocesan accountable schools seeking any exemption from this policy or its procedures shall gain the approval of the Director of Catholic Education. In order for accountable schools, any exemption from this policy shall be approved by the Congregational Leader after consulting the Executive Director of Catholic Education.

- be free from any impediment to full acceptance by the Church
- be able to provide leadership in the development and implementation of curriculum
- have completed Accreditation for Leadership of the Religious Education Learning Area requirements
- have a minimum of five years relevant educational experience

5.5.4 The tenure of the middle leadership position shall be at the discretion of the Principal but shall be no less than one year and no longer than eight years, at which time the position is to be advertised. Reviews shall occur at regular intervals of at least three years.

5.5.5 Continuation of the contract is dependent upon a successful review of performance in relation to defined responsibilities.

- 5.5.6 The position shall be advertised in the final year of tenure. The incumbent may apply. However; should the incumbent be unsuccessful in obtaining a similar position in the current or any other Catholic school, he/she shall have security of employment as a teacher in the current school.

Short Term Positions

- 5.5.7.1 A short term position is to replace an incumbent staff member for a period of no longer than two (2) years duration.
- 5.5.7.2 Should a person in a promotional position be on extended leave from the school for purposes of sick leave, long service leave, maternity leave, special leave, or any other form of approved leave, the Principal/Congregational Leader may appoint a replacement to the position for the duration of the leave. For acting positions of greater than one (1) term's duration, appointments shall be subject to an expression of interest process as a minimum. The appointment process shall adhere to the principles of natural justice and gender equity and be merit based.
- 5.5.7.3 In replacing persons in promotional positions the Principal shall refer to the eligibility criteria listed.

Teaching Staff

The following procedures apply for the appointment of staff to teaching or education support positions in all Catholic schools.

- 5.6.1 The Principal shall convene a panel consisting of at least two persons. In primary schools, the Parish Priest shall also be invited to be an additional panel member.
- 5.6.2 Persons appointed to teaching positions shall as a minimum:
- be committed to the values of the Catholic school

Additional Information

While not employees, the following procedures apply for the engagement of contractors and volunteers in all catholic schools.

5.8.1 Contractors

As part of any new or renewed contract, regular contractors/sub-contractors shall be required to undertake a 'CrimTrac' 100 point Check Police Clearance on all of their employees where they intend to use them on a school site. The cost of the clearance will be borne by the contractor.

Contractors engaged to work with children are required to have a current Working with Children Card. Contact the Employment and Community Relations Team for further information.

5.8.2 Volunteer

Where volunteers are doing voluntary work with children, and their likely duties involve contact with children, then a Working with Children Card shall be required unless the volunteer is exempted.

- Parents generally do not require a Working with Children Card unless their involvement includes an overnight camp
- Interstate visitors who will not be in schools in WA for more than two (2) weeks in any one calendar year do not require a Working with Children Card
- Volunteers under 18 years of age do not require a Working with Children Card
- Community members who help out in the canteen or school community, and who do not have children in the school, do require a Working with Children Card
- Grandparents and other family relations do require a Working with Children Card unless they are interstate visitors or otherwise exempted

Separate to any Working with Children requirements, schools may determine the police clearance required for voluntary positions. A 'Crimtrac' 100 point Police Clearance is the recommended police clearance for voluntary positions. The cost of volunteer police clearances will be borne by the school.

Contact the Employment and Community Relations Team for further information.
